Dear Parents/Carers

Non-School Uniform Day – Friday, 26th May 2017

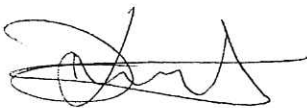

On Friday, 26th May 2017, the day we break for half-term, there will be a non-school uniform day and Stowmarket High School will be supporting the RNLI–Royal National Lifeboat Institution. This charity relies on volunteers who work hard and risk their own lives to save others every day. They provide 24 hour support to give a free lifeboat search and rescue service and last year they saved 558 lives alone. This charity also provides lifeguards and water safety education for over 600 children in schools every week.

Students and staff are invited to wear non-school uniform on this day to help to support this charity. We would like everyone to take part, so please encourage your son/daughter to come into school on the day wearing non-school uniform and with a £1.00 donation. By taking part, we can all make a real difference!

Please note that part of the money raised on the day will also go to our school activity enrichment fund.

If you would like to know more about the RNLI, you can visit their website at www.rlni.org

Yours sincerely
